Information for Refugees in Greece

You can find important information on the Refugee.Info website. It tells you about:

- How to ask for asylum
- Your rights
- Health care
- Education
- Work
- Services available in Greece from organizations that help refugees

The website wants to fill the information gap that often exists for refugees. It aims to support people and help them access services and know their rights.

What you can find on Refugee.Info:

- Information in many languages (English, Arabic, Urdu, French, Farsi, Somali, and Ukrainian)
- Accurate and up-to-date information that is useful to you

Visit the Refugee.Info website at <https://greece.refugee.info/>

How to use the website:

1. Click on "INFORMATION" to see a list of topics.
2. Click on "SERVICES" to see the types of services available in your area in Greece.

Get in touch with us:

- Send a message on Messenger or WhatsApp.
- Follow us on Facebook and subscribe to our Telegram and WhatsApp channels.

If you want to talk to a team member, send a message on Facebook Messenger in your language. We respect your privacy and keep your information safe.

Guides for Asylum Seekers and Refugees:

Two guides, made by Refugee.Info and UNHCR, list service providers for asylum seekers and refugees in Athens and Thessaloniki. These organizations offer free help, including:

- Medical care
- Social counseling
- Psychological support
- Hygiene services
- Legal help
- Food and shelter
- Material assistance
- Education
- Services for people living with HIV/AIDS
- Services for people facing discrimination because of their gender or sexual orientation.

The guides also list independent bodies you can contact if your rights are violated by government services, private organizations, or individuals.

You can find the guides for Athens and Thessaloniki on the Refugee.Info website.
